Under no circumstances may campers leave camp with anyone other than parents without COMPLETION OF THIS FORM (or some other type of WRITTEN permission). Furthermore, guests taking campers away from camp must be at least 21 years of age.

This form must be completed for each child attending camp.

PERMISSION TO LEAVE CAMP

In the event of a Dr.'s visit or medical emergency, I give permission for my child to be transported and supervised by a staff member as designated by the camp administration.

Initial Here

In the event that another camper has a medical emergency or has to make Dr.'s visit and requests to have a "buddy" accompany them, I give my child permission to leave camp and to be transported and supervised by a camp staff member as designated by the camp administration.

Initial Here

In the event that my child runs out of any personal supplies, that could not be purchased by a staff member without my child being present, or if another camper in my child's cabin has to make such a trip and requests a "buddy" accompany them, I give my child permission to leave camp and to be transported and supervised by a camp staff member as designated by the camp administration.
